Synopsis: It's Autumn and in his room in the city, someone misses last summer's heat, sounds and flavours, the colours and the wind. He draws and the paper/camera records the memories of the sounds, feelings and smells that stay here, now in this once sketchbook, now a film. Whenever we want, we can open it again and feel once more the lack of heat, scents, love…

Nuno Amorim

Born in April, 1952. With his background in architecture, worked as an art director in FCB and Publicis Advertising Agencies, moving afterwards to RTP, Portuguese public television, where he began as a graphic designer, then as director and was afterwards head of the graphic department. There, he wrote and directed several short animation films, documentaries and cultural series, being also responsible for a large part of the motion graphics produced by RTP from 1985 to 1998.
Started Animais AVPL production company in 1991, where he is currently director and producer.
