Synopsis: Caxinas is a land of codfish fishermen, known as bacalhoeiros in Portuguese, where the sea life is hard-lived and the horizon is a constant presence for those who leave and for those who stay. Interviews with former bacalhoeiros was the starting point for the production of this short film. The horizon led the children's eyes to create the animations that give life to the stories of bacalhoeiros, thus creating an intergenerational relationship.
