Dimitri Mihajlovic

Dimitri Mihajlovic, born in Belgrade, Serbia, in 1990, is a director, animator and post-producer from Lisbon, currently based in Porto. He graduated from the Faculty of Fine Arts of the University of Lisbon in 2012 with a degree in Multimedia Art - Animation, under the guidance of José Pedro Cavalheiro (Zepe), and completed a postgraduate course in the same subject and under the same tutelage in 2013. During his formative years, he began working on short auteur films, having taken part in the production of “M” by Joana Bartolomeu, as a layout artist and animator.
After completing his postgraduate studies, he joined the “Modo Imago” team, where he stayed for two years, participating mainly as lead-composer in films such as “Vigil” by Rita Cruchinho Neves and “Máquina ou a Casa de Habitar” by Catarina Romano. In 2015 he was invited by the BAP - Animation Studio team, and since then he has continuously participated in various projects: “Elo” (assistant director, animation and compositing), “Homem das Pernas Altas” (animation and compositing), “Agouro” (compositing and painting), among others. He recently co-directed the short film “Quase Me Lembro” with Miguel Lima.

Miguel Lima

Miguel Lima was born in Lisbon in 1987. He graduated in Painting from the Faculty of Fine Arts in Lisbon and received an Erasmus scholarship for a year at the Academy of Fine Arts in Florence.
After a few years working in the fine arts, in 2015 he had his first contact with independent cinema and in 2016 he moved to Porto to join the animation studio of the production company Bando à Parte, where he became part of the artistic team and helped develop several award-winning film projects.
At the moment he's developing his personal and collective projects at BAP - Animation Studio, where he's the tallest director. With Dimitri Mihajlovic, he co-directed his first animated short film "Quase Me Lembro".
